

Education Department
 515 Loudon Road
 Loudonville, NY 12211

Sage Articulation Agreement

As of January 2019, Sage Articulation applies to Siena Students who:

- graduate from Siena College with at least a 3.0 average in their area of concentration (i.e. a major, or its equivalent in a subject area), at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA, and complete the Teacher Preparation Program, thus making them eligible for initial certification prior to being admitted to Sage Colleges
- OR
- graduate from Siena College with a minor in Educational Studies with at least a 3.0 average in their area of concentration (i.e. a major, or its equivalent in a subject area) and at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA

Benefits:

1. A waived application fee
2. Two courses waived*:
  - a. EDU 201, Education in Society (Siena College EDUC 210, Issues in Contemporary American Education equivalent)
  - b. EDU 206, Educational Psychology (Siena College EDUC 260, Educational Psychology equivalent)
3. Option for a third class to be waived at the discretion of Sage Colleges.

This agreement would apply to students going into the following fields of study at Sage:

- Childhood/Literacy Education (M.S.)
- Childhood/Special Education (M.S.)
- Literacy Education Birth-Grade 6 or Grades 5-12 (M.S.Ed)
- Literacy/Special Education (M.S.)
- School Health Education (M.S.)

*Field experience requirements for Sage's programs may differ from those of Siena's programs. It is the responsibility of the student to check these requirements with an advisor at Sage and, if necessary, to determine with that advisor how these requirements shall be met.

Margaret Madden	10/16/18	Theresa Hand	10/28/18
Siena College Representative (Print)	Date	Sage College Representative (Print)	Date

[Signature]	10/16/18	Innesattand	10/28/18
Siena College Representative (Sign)	Date	Sage College Representative (Sign)	Date