

Lot 2 – Visitor and Commuter

Corner of 1st Street and Congress Street across from the Admission House

Any spots in this lot marked as Reserved or Visitor Parking are off limits to commuters. These spots are designated for Admissions visitors, trustees, or other off campus visitors to Russell Sage. Commuter students are not considered visitors. There is also one Accessible Parking space at the end of the lot which requires a valid placard to park in.

You will receive a ticket for parking in this lot if you are:

- A resident student, faculty or staff member
- A commuter who has parked in a Reserved or Visitor spot
- An individual parking in an Accessible Parking spot without a valid parking placard

Please be advised that unregistered vehicles with multiple parking infractions may be subjected to towing.
